

Australian Music Examination Board (AMEB) Information

Dear Parents & Guardians,

The Australian Music Examination Board (AMEB) offers primary and secondary school students (and beyond) the opportunity to gain certificates in Instrumental Music (Practical Examinations) and Music Theory (Written Examinations).

Music staff at St Patrick's College encourages students to undertake AMEB Examinations when they have reached an appropriate level. Examinations are not compulsory, but students considering studying music at VCE or Tertiary level should strongly consider undertaking both Theory and Practical examinations. Please discuss any aspect of the enrolment or examination process with your child's teacher.

Unless stipulated otherwise, our College accompanist will be organised to fulfil the necessary accompaniment requirements for this examination (see attached form detailing accompaniment details) and the flat rate fee is required to be paid at the time of enrolment.

Your child is recommended to sit the examination listed below:

Student's Name: _____
Instrument: _____	AMEB Grade: _____
Cost of Examination: _____	Cost of Accompaniment: $ 100.00

The dates, as set by AMEB for the 2nd Country Session (Instrumental and piano) are in early December. Most practical examinations will be held at either Ballarat Grammar Music School or the Ballarat Clarendon College PAC. Dates and venue will be confirmed by AMEB.

Would you kindly advise your approval or otherwise by completing the attached permission slip, and returning it to the Music Office or emailing a copy to performingarts@stpats.vic.edu.au.

This will enable processing of payment to the AMEB by the closing date.

Please return the attached permission slip to confirm your son's participation in the examination.

Yours sincerely

Ms Fiona Wilson
Head of Music
